CABINET OFFICER REPORT

Name and title of the Cabinet Member:	Councillor Nia Jeffreys Deputy Leader of the Council
Name and title of the report author:	Siwan Lisa Evans Shared Prosperity Fund Manager: Gwynedd
Date decision taken:	30 September 2024
Signature of the Cabinet Member:

SUBJECT: Allocation of funds from the 'Multiply' budget of the UK Shared Prosperity Fund

Recommendations for the Decision:

1. To agree to commit an additional £28,512 of the Multiply budget of Gwynedd's allocation from the UK's Shared Prosperity Fund to the NumberWise Living project by Adra (Tai) Cyf.

Reasons why the Decision is needed:

At the Cabinet meeting on 24 January 2023 (item 6), a procedure was agreed for committing money from Gwynedd's allocation of the UK's Shared Prosperity Fund.

The Shared Prosperity Fund Panel: Gwynedd was established to allocate the money, with their recommendations to be confirmed through a Cabinet Member Decision Notice by the Leader (or the Cabinet, if so desired by the Panel).

Reason and justification behind the Decision:

Multiply is a sub-theme within the 'People and Skills' Investment Priority in the UK Shared Prosperity Fund. Multiply is designed to support adults to improve their numeracy skills. Multiply is the only part of the Fund that has a protected budget - £2,942,620 has been allocated for Multiply within Gwynedd's allocation from the UK Shared Prosperity Fund.

£1,825,050 of the Multiply funding has already been committed to support relevant activities by five projects. See papers

£1,117,570 of the Multiply fund remains from Gwynedd's allocation of the UK's Shared Prosperity Fund.

A new application was submitted by GISDA Cyf for an additional £28,512 to the NumberWise Living project to provide activities that are eligible to receive funding from Multiply.

The Gwynedd Shared Prosperity Fund Panel has recommended committing a total of £28,512 of the remaining Multiply funds from Gwynedd's allocation of the Shared Prosperity Fund to the project above.

This Decision Notice reflects the Panel's recommendations.
